CHAMBERS OF
THE CHIEF JUSTICE

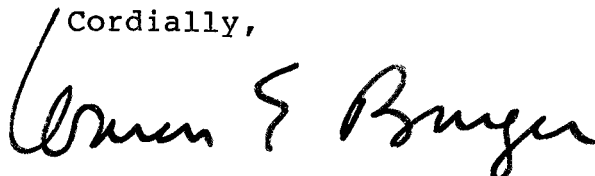

January 29, 1982

Dear Mr. Casey:

I enjoyed the opportunity to meet with the Business Council last May. Since some have expressed interest in the difficult business of improving the administration of justice, in its broadest sense, I thought the enclosed, recent remarks at the University of Nebraska, "More Warehouses, or Factories With Fences?" might be of interest to you. I also enclose a copy of the Annual Report to the ABA on arbitration.

Please do not burden yourself to acknowledge.

Cordially,

Enclosures
